

WILSONS OBSERVE QUIET HOLIDAY

President and Wife Go to Church and Then Take Automobile Ride.

MISS HOPKINS' DEBUT

Brilliant Company Expected to Assemble at Residence of Her Parents.

President and Mrs. Wilson are spending a quiet Thanksgiving at the White House with their immediate families, including Miss Margaret Wilson, Miss Helen Woodrow Wilson and Mrs. W. H. Hollis, mother of Mrs. Wilson. President and Mrs. Wilson attended services this morning at the Central Presbyterian Church, followed by a long automobile ride.

Today Mrs. Wilson sent many flowers to friends in this city who, through illness were unable to enjoy the day and to a number of charities.

A brilliant company will assemble this afternoon at the residence of Dr. and Mrs. Nevill Monroe Hopkins in Bangor place to meet their daughter, Miss Anne Dorsey Hopkins, who will be presented to society.

Miss Hopkins comes of a family which has been prominent in the district for several generations and quite fittingly Thanksgiving Day, always a favorite time for debutante teas, has been reserved in her honor. The house is elaborately decorated with palms, ferns and huge clusters of yellow chrysanthemums and yellow chrysanthemums adorn the tea table.

Mrs. Hopkins and her daughter will receive together. The former wearing a handsome gown of cloth of gold, veiled with bronze colored net. Miss Hopkins will be gowned in a dainty, modish costume of white satin, combined with white tulle and silver lace.

Presiding at the tea table will be the bride's grandmother, Mrs. F. A. M. Hopkins and Viscountess Henri de Sibur. Others who will assist in receiving are Mrs. Lyman Hall, Miss Margaret Fahnestock, Miss Hallie Davis, Miss Margaret Clark, the Misses Tuttle, Miss Nellie Johnson, Miss Candace Howard, and Miss Hopkins' guests, Miss Esther Hosmer, of Boston, and Miss Elizabeth Sefton, of New York and Washington.

Later in the evening Dr. and Mrs. Hopkins and Miss Hopkins will entertain a company of fifty-two guests at a dinner at the home of the doctor. The guests will be followed by a supper at their home. Some of the guests will remain at the home of the doctor, while others will be attending the Navy Relief Ball at the Navy Yard.

The guests at the theater party and supper will include Misses Evelyn Gleaves, Miss Esther Hosmer, Miss Ruth Patterson, Miss Catherine Burdette, the Misses Tuttle, Miss Margaret Fahnestock, Miss Hallie Davis, Miss Margaret Clark, the Misses Johnson, Miss Candace Howard, and Miss Hopkins' guests, Miss Esther Hosmer, of Boston, and Miss Elizabeth Sefton, of New York and Washington.

Married Yesterday.
Mrs. Laura H. C. Johnston, daughter of Mr. Henry A. Coolidge, and Dr. Tracy Morgan A. Coolidge were married yesterday at 4 o'clock at the home of the sister of the bridegroom, Miss Nellie M. Payfair, 914 Westminister street, in the presence of relatives and a few intimate friends.

The ceremony was performed by Rev. Lucius C. Clark. After a brief wedding trip Dr. and Mrs. Payfair will make their home at 1806 N street.

The regular dances of the Washington Golf and Country Club for the month of December will be held on Saturday nights, December 2 and 16.

Mrs. Joseph R. Darling and Miss Sidney Head will be "at home" Fridays during December.

Mr. and Mrs. Glibbank Twigg are here from their place at Markham, Va. and are at the Willard. Other arrivals at the Willard today include Mr. and Mrs. H. M. Roy Emmet, of Tuxedo, N. Y.; Mrs. H. T. Wickham and Miss R. H. Henshaw, of Virginia, and Mr. and Mrs. Henry Post Mitchell, of Princeton, N. J.

Mr. Gerard Entertains.
James W. Gerard, ambassador to Germany, entertained a company at luncheon at the Shoreham yesterday, prior to his departure for New York. He had among his guests Thomas D. McCarthy and Joseph Tumulty, secretary to the President.

Mr. Gerard was joined by Mrs. Gerard at the Ritz in New York.

Embassy and Madame de Blainpre were among those entertaining at luncheon at the Shoreham yesterday.

Dinner At Army-Navy Club.
Capt. and Mrs. James J. Loving will entertain at the Army and Navy Club on the evening of December 7.

Mrs. Thomas C. Dawson will be hostess at a dinner on the evening of December 6 at the Chevy Chase Club.

Dr. and Mrs. Alfred Hopkins returned to their home in Edgemoor, Md., last week from Honolulu, where they spent a fortnight.

Col. and Mrs. Clement A. F. Flagler will give a dinner at the Army and Navy Club on Thursday evening, December 7, before the weekly dance.

Col. Mason Patrick, U. S. A., commandant at the Washington barracks, and Mrs. Patrick will entertain a number of young people at dinner tomorrow night, taking their guests later to the informal hop at the Officers' Club.

The Cornell women of Washington will give a tea dance at Raucher's this afternoon from 3 to 7. Returns on the Penn-Cornell football game will be announced during the afternoon. The patronesses are Mrs. G. Savage, Miss Ruth Putnam, Mrs. J. Holton, Mrs. W. R. Harper, Mrs. F. Coville, Mrs. L. A. Bauer, Mrs. D. White, and Mrs. H. Brown. The committee in charge is as follows: Miss C. Jessica J. Donnelly, Mrs. George Ashley, and the Misses Dorothy Ashley, Grace Bennett, and Jean Holmes.

Lieut. and Mrs. Henry Jervey will entertain at dinner on December 7 at the Army and Navy Club.

Wife of Commandant at Navy Yard Entertains at Tea.
Mrs. James H. Glennon, wife of Rear Admiral Glennon, U. S. A., commandant at the navy yard, was hostess at a tea yesterday afternoon at the navy yard in compliment to their daughter-in-law, Mrs. Philip Glennon, wife of Edw. Glennon, U. S. N., who will be the guest of Rear Admiral and Mrs. Glennon for the next ten days.

Mrs. J. P. Parker and Mrs. John A. Lejeune presided at the tea table, while others assisting were Mrs. John Harrison Knapp, Mrs. Percy Bishop, the Misses Gheen, Miss Crawford, Miss Dorothy Aleshire, Miss Ellie Lejeune, Miss Reeves Harris and Miss Elizabeth Chase. Pink roses were used in the dining room and yellow chrysanthemums in the halls and drawing rooms.

Mrs. Mark Hanna motored over to Baltimore yesterday to make a short visit to her son-in-law and daughter, Congressman-elect and Mrs. Medill McCormick, who are at the Belvedere Hotel while their little son is undergoing treatment at the Johns Hopkins Hospital.

Lukache to Entertain.
Major and Mrs. Gustave Lukache will entertain at dinner on the evening of December 15 before the formal hop which the officers stationed at the Washington Barracks will give that night at the Officers' Club.

Mrs. Joseph Earle will leave Washington at the end of next week to join Captain Earle, U. S. A., in Brownsville, Tex., where she will pass the winter.

Lieut. and Mrs. James G. B. Lambert will be hostess at dinner tomorrow night, taking their guests later to the informal hop which the officers stationed at the Washington Barracks

WOODSON-BUTLER WEDDING TODAY

Ceremony To Be Performed at Plantation of Bride's Family.

A marriage of unusual interest to Washington will take place this afternoon at 5 o'clock, when Miss Pocahontas Butler, daughter of former Senator and Mrs. Marion Butler, of North Carolina, will become the bride of Capt. Thomas Dupuy Woodson, Medical Corps, U. S. A. The ceremony will take place at Elliott, the North Carolina plantation which Mrs. Butler inherited and which is part of the original grant from the English crown to one of her ancestors.

The great drawing rooms of the beautiful old mansion are decorated with fragrant pine and quantities of home-grown blossoms. The ceremony will be performed by the pastor of the little Episcopal Church in Elliott, which Miss Butler has attended since childhood, and the bride's father will give her in marriage. She will wear a lovely gown of white tulle over satin, trimmed with silver, and wear a court train. Her veil is of tulle and she will carry white orchids and lilies of the valley.

Only One Attendant.
Miss Mary Jord Andrews, of Washington, will be the bride's only attendant. Her costume of white tulle and taffeta is built over an underskirt of silver lace, and trimmed about the bodice with silver lace. A yellow girle and touches of yellow on bodice and skirt complete the costume. She will carry yellow roses. Lieut. Joseph D. Arthur, U. S. A., who came up from Panama with Captain Woodson, will be her escort.

Mr. and Mrs. Butler are entertaining a house party for the wedding, which will be attended only by a small company of relatives and close friends. Congressman and Mrs. James L. Sladen of Texas are among their guests.

Captain Woodson and Lieutenant Arthur were met in New York on their arrival from Panama by the captain's father, Mr. Woodson, of Richmond, Mo. They spent a day or two in Washington and left town Tuesday for Elliott. On the completion of a brief honeymoon Captain Woodson will take his bride to the Canal Zone, where he is on duty. He was formerly stationed in Washington.

Mr. and Mrs. Butler expect to open their Washington home later in the season.

More shifts in the diplomatic set in Washington, lately in a state of rapid and continuous changes of personnel, are announced. Now it is Chile, which has named Dr. Aldunate Bascunan to be ambassador in Washington. He is promoted from the Italian ministry to Chile, and will succeed Eduardo Suarez Mujica, recently resigned.

On Way To Washington.
The ambassador-designate is now on his way here from the Chilean port. He is widely acquainted among both the European and the South American members of the corps in Washington, and will be one of the most interesting as well as important diplomats, because of his intimate knowledge of Pan-American affairs, in which he has specialized. The appointment is a wide range of affairs concerning the Americas may be involved when peace terms are discussed, and attributed as a chief reason for his transfer to the United States.

Enrique Suñer, who served a term as counselor of the Chilean embassy in Washington, has been appointed Chile's minister to Mexico. Since his service in Washington he has been under secretary for foreign affairs at Santiago. His special information about Mexican affairs is regarded as responsible for his designation at Mexico City.

Feature of Bazaar.
One of the most interesting features of the bazaar to be given for the benefit of the House of Mercy at the residence of Mrs. Charles W. Richardson, 1217 Connecticut avenue on Wednesday, December 6 from 2 to 7 o'clock, will be the original white elephant table. Among those in charge of this table will be Mrs. Julian James, Miss Katherine Minnack, Mrs. Susan Murray, Miss Elizabeth Sawtelle, Miss Milliken, Mrs. R. G. Hoes, Mrs. Robert Elmore, Mrs. Murray LeMay, Miss Sophie Siebert, Mrs. E. L. McClelland, and Miss Emily Johnson, of Frederick.

MRS. LANSING AT HOME

State Department Officials To Be Guests This Afternoon.

Mrs. Robert Lansing, wife of the Secretary of State, will entertain at a reception this afternoon at her home in Eighteenth street in compliment to the officials of the State Department. Receiving with Mrs. Lansing will be Mrs. Williams Phillips, Mrs. Cone Johnson, Mrs. Frank L. Polk, and Mrs. Hampton Gary, and her mother, Mrs. John W. Foster, and her sister, Mrs. A. M. Dulles, of Auburn, N. Y., who is visiting Secretary and Mrs. Lansing for several days.

Mrs. Delos Blodgett, Miss Helen Blodgett, and Miss Ruth Wilson are spending Thanksgiving Day in New York, where they have been joined by Delos Blodgett. This afternoon Mrs. Blodgett will entertain a party at the matinee to be followed by a dinner at the Waldorf-Astoria in celebration of Miss Wilson's birthday. Early next week, Mr. Blodgett will return to Yale, and Mrs. Blodgett, Miss Blodgett and Miss Wilson will come to Washington.

Mr. and Mrs. Howard Reeside will be hosts at a dinner of fourteen covers this afternoon. Among the guests will be their son, Harmer Reeside, who has come from St. Luke's School in Philadelphia to spend the holidays with his parents, and their house guest, John Owen, of Wisconsin; a classmate of the son. Their daughter, Mrs. Victor Whit- side, is in El Paso, where her husband, Lieutenant Whiteside, U. S. A., is on duty.

MAURICE LEE MARRIED

Weds Miss Geraldine Shaw, of New York City.

Society here and in other cities will be surprised to learn of the marriage of Miss Geraldine Shaw, of New York, and Maurice Lee, of Wilmington, Del. and Washington. They were married in the marriage chapel in the Municipal building in New York yesterday. Mr. Lee is related to the wealthy Du Pont family, and the marriage was hastened by the fact that the bride's father, Mr. Lee, is being sent abroad on business for the Du Pont interests, to be gone several months, so the marriage was hastened. A civil ceremony was performed immediately after they had procured a marriage license from the deputy city clerk, so that passengers could be obtained for both five days in advance of their leaving, as required. They obtained a duplicate license and a religious ceremony will be performed next Tuesday at the Broadway Tabernacle. The day following, Mr. Lee and his bride propose to leave on board the Rydam.

Mr. Lee is the son of Mr. and Mrs. Casanova G. Lee, of Washington. His mother was Marguerite du Pont, of the same family generation as Gen. T. Coleman du Pont, of Wilmington.

The Assistant Secretary of the Navy and Mrs. Franklin Roosevelt, who are visiting Mr. Roosevelt's mother, Mrs. John Roosevelt, at Hyde Park, N. Y., will return to Washington on Tuesday.

Coming Here on Visit.
Mr. and Mrs. William Fahnestock and Mr. and Mrs. Harris Fahnestock, of New York, will arrive tomorrow and will be the guest of Mr. and Mrs. Gibson Fahnestock at the Shoreham. They will come for the debut of Miss Margaret Fahnestock, which will take place Saturday afternoon at the home of her parents, Mr. and Mrs. Gibson Fahnestock, in Massachusetts avenue.

Snowden Fahnestock, of New York; Miss Helen Cameron, of New York; Miss Lucile Carter, of Philadelphia, and Miss Caroline Andrews, of Lake Island, will arrive on Saturday and will be the house guests of Mr. and Mrs. Fahnestock.

The United States Ambassador to Spain and Mrs. Joseph E. Willard went to Richmond last evening and will return to Washington about the middle of December for a few days before going on to New York, whence they will sail for Spain on December 21.

MANNS ENTERTAIN AT DANCE TONIGHT

Pierrot and Pierrette Ball To Be Given This Evening.

Mr. and Mrs. Isaac Thomas Mann will entertain about ninety guests at a Pierrot and Pierrette dance this evening at their residence in Sixteenth street.

Mrs. Victor Blue, wife of Captain Blue, commanding the U. S. S. Texas, has arrived in Washington to be their guest for several days, and to attend the dance. Dr. Leland Coffey, of Staten Island, and Col. Herbert S. Whipple, U. S. A., of Governor's Island, are also stopping with Mr. and Mrs. Mann.

Mr. and Mrs. Mann have selected January 9 as the date of the dance they will give in honor of this season's debutante; and on December 26 they will give a young people's party for Miss Alice Mann and Master Billy Mann.

Mrs. Mann's sister, Miss Hannah Hendley, will arrive in town December 5 to be her guest for some time.

Musicals for Charity.
Miss Virginia Trimble, Southern society girl and philanthropist, will give a musical at the Willard on December 9 for charity.

The proceeds will be given to Mrs. N. W. Trimble, honorary regent of the Daughters of the American Revolution, for relief and education work among poor mountain white children in Alabama and Virginia.

Miss Trimble is associated in this undertaking with Mrs. Trimble, honorary regent of the D. A. R. of Alabama, and Miss Penelope Bryan, of Washington and Virginia, a Colonial Dame. The list of patronesses will be announced later. Tickets may be obtained at the Willard.

Major Blanton Winchell is in Chicago for a visit of a few days, stopping at the Chicago Club. He was for a considerable time stationed there as judge advocate general of the Department of the Lakes, later held the same post in Cuba during the American occupation, and recently has administered it from Governor's Island for the

TODAY'S BEAUTY HELP

You can keep your hair at its very best by washing it with this simple, inexpensive shampoo, which cleanses the hair and scalp thoroughly of all the dandruff and dirt and leaves a clean, wholesome feeling! Just use a teaspoonful of canthox dissolved in a cup of hot water, afterwards rinsing thoroughly with clean water. One finds that the hair dries quickly and evenly, is unstreaked, bright, soft and fluffy, so fluffy in fact that it looks more abundant than it is, and so soft that arranging it becomes a pleasure. All scalp irritation will disappear and the hair will be brighter than ever before.—Adv.
